

Woodhaven Cultural & Historical Society

2013 Schedule

January 30	Landmark Designation of St. Matthew's and the Wyckoff-Snedicker Family Cemetery.
February 27	Nick Hirshon, author of "Images of America: Forest Hills" will discuss his book which hits bookstores that very week.
March 27	Woodhaven's Viktoria Sema Ballavoski, psychic and author of "Lilith's Awakening," will discuss her book. 3 members of the society will be chosen at random for free readings.
April 24	We will be joined by a panel of three talented photographers who will display some of their favorite photographs and discuss their craft. Our guests will be the Queens Ledger's Michael O'Kane, the Times Ledger's Christina Santucci, and the Times Newsweekly's Nick Biondo.
May 29	Eddie Costello's Antique Trash or Treasure Roadshow makes a return visit to Woodhaven. All paid members will be guaranteed at least one appraisal, other attendees may get an appraisal if time allows.
June 26	Penny Social - an auction where you purchase tickets for chances to win items. There are always interesting items at the Historical Society's auction.
July / August	Vacation
September 25	"Swept by Ocean Breezes: A History of Coney Island" by Professor John Manbeck, Professor Emeritus at Kingsborough Community College.
October 30	"The Roots of Doo-Wop and Rock 'n' Roll" by lecturer Robert L. Cohen. Make sure you stay after the presentation for a special show.
November 20	We will be joined by artist Madeline Lovallo, who has painted many scenes in and around Woodhaven, Howard Beach and the Rockaways. Around these parts, Madeline is most famous for a beautiful portrait she did of Lewis' of Woodhaven, which was sold in various stores as a Christmas card some years back.
December 18	Christmas Party

In the event of bad weather, please call 718-805-2002 to find out if we will be meeting or not.
